

III. REMARKS

1. Claims 1, 17, 18, 25, 26, 29-32, 47 and 49-54 are amended. Claims 4-20 are cancelled without prejudice.
2. Applicant appreciates the Examiner's indication of the allowance of certain claims and allowable subject matter.
3. The claims are amended to address the various objections.
4. The claims are amended to address the 35 USC §112, second paragraph rejections.
5. The independent claims have been amended to change the term "modified" to "created" in order to make the claim terminology consistent with the terminology used in the specification. See, for example, paragraphs 0069, 0070, 0075 and 0076 of the published application (2002/0035682).
6. Should any issues remain, the formality of an interview with the Examiner is requested.

The Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge payment for any fees associated with this communication or credit any over payment to Deposit Account No. 16-1350.

Respectfully submitted,
